KATHFORD NEWSLETTER

JESTHA EDITION

BBA and BBM Concept paper presentation for summer project

May 15 , 2025

BBA and BBM students presented their concept papers for their summer projects. This event provided an opportunity to showcase their research ideas, receive feedback from faculty, and enhance their project planning for successful execution.

Linux Workshop

May 16 , 2025

A workshop introducing students to Linux fundamentals, including command-line use and system management, to enhance their technical skills.

Consumer Buying Behaviour Simulation BBA 7th Sem

May 19, 2025

A simulation activity for BBA 7th semester students to analyze consumer buying behavior and decision-making processes in a practical setting.

Kathford Sathi at CCRC

May 19, 2025

Kathford Sathi's visit to CCRC was more than a meeting—it was a collaborative effort to rethink and enhance education. Through open dialogue and idea-sharing, both institutions took a significant step toward building a brighter academic future together.

Student onboarding program on KLEM BBA 2nd Sem

May 22, 2025

The session introduced students to the KLEM learning model, helping them understand academic expectations and the tools available for their academic journey.

Student onboarding program on KLEM BCA 2nd Sem

May 23, 2025

The program aimed to introduce second-semester BCA students to the KLEM model, providing insights into learning resources, academic planning, and the overall structure for the upcoming semesters.

NEXTGENed Google Classroom Workshop

May 24, 2025

This workshop focused on training faculty members to use Google Classroom tools and features, enhancing their ability to deliver effective and interactive digital learning under the NEXTGENed initiative.

Student onboarding program on KLEM IT

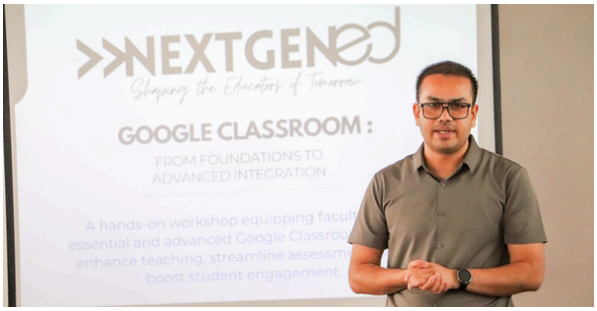
May 21, 2025

The onboarding session introduced new students to the KLEM IT platform, helping them understand its structure, features, and usage for academic activities.

Mid defense on practicum on business plan model

May 21, 2025

Students presented their ongoing business plan models, receiving constructive feedback to refine and improve their final practicum outcomes.



Final practicum on business plan BBA and BBM 6th semester

May 26, 2025

Final practicum presentations where BBA and BBM 6th semester students showcased their comprehensive business plans, demonstrating their practical knowledge and skills gained throughout the course.

Quiz Competition

June 1, 2025

The IT Quiz Competition, hosted by the Kathford IT Club, brought students together to test their knowledge and problem-solving skills. It fostered teamwork, curiosity, and a fun learning environment.

Film Festival (Fun Friday)

May 30, 2025

Students came together for Fun Friday to watch Lunana: A Yak in the Classroom, a heartfelt film about dreams, teaching, and community. The screening inspired and connected students through meaningful storytelling.

Kathford Environment Day – Trash to Treasure

June 5, 2025

The Kathford Creative Club organized a Trash to Treasure challenge, where students turned waste materials into creative pieces. The event promoted sustainability and highlighted the power of upcycling through student innovation.

Guest Speaker Session on Career Preparation

June 5, 2025

A guest session was conducted for final-year BCA and CSIT students focusing on career preparation. The speaker shared valuable insights on job readiness, resume building, interview tips, and navigating the tech industry after graduation.

Leadership Friday – Change Management

June 6, 2025

The Leadership Friday series began with an insightful session on Change Management. The workshop focused on navigating transitions, embracing change, and leading with adaptability.

Guest Speaker Session on Seismic Protective Systems

June 6, 2025

An informative session on Seismic Protective Systems introduced students to key concepts of earthquake-resistant design and its practical relevance in engineering.

Onboarding Session – BBA 4th Semester

June 10, 2025

An onboarding session was conducted for BBA 4th semester students to guide them through the upcoming academic journey, course expectations, and available resources for a smooth transition.

KathTalk

June 8, 2025

KathTalk focused on helping BBA students decide between Marketing and Finance specializations. The session offered real insights and advice, organized by the Kathford Presentation and Literature Club.

Business Information System Viva Exam

June 11, 2025

BBA 6th semester students appeared for their Business Information System viva, demonstrating their understanding of key concepts through oral evaluation and practical discussions.

Until Next Month...

What a journey it has been—full of ideas, events, and memories that sparked growth.
But the journey doesn't end here.
Let's continue dreaming bigger, aiming higher, and learning deeper.
We'll be back with more stories that inspire, events that empower, and moments that matter.

Until next time, keep your spark alive!

TEAM KATHFORD